

Supplementary Material

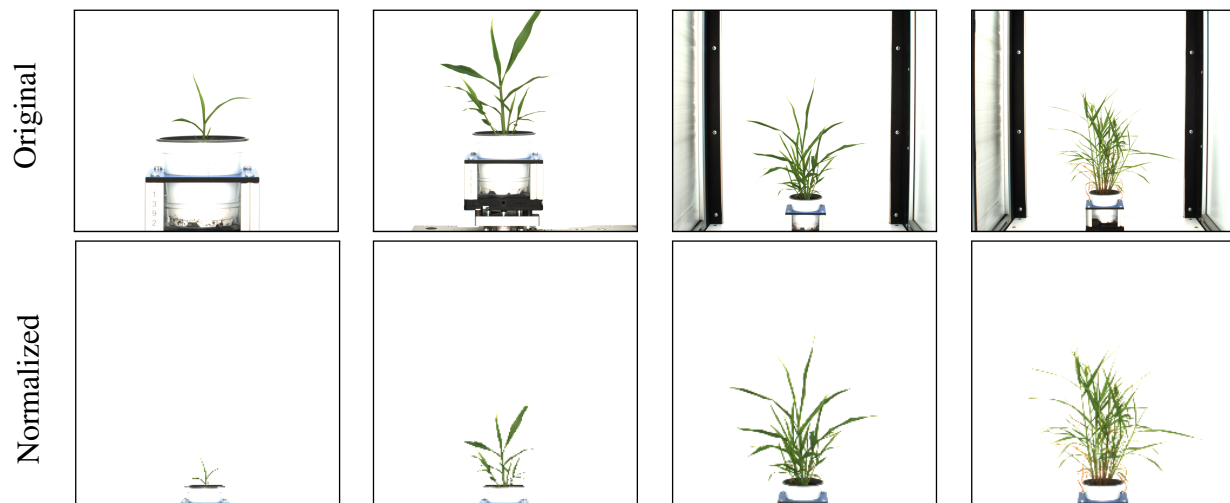

Figure S1. Examples of the images used for the experiments. The first row shows original images taken at different magnifications. The second row shows normalized images in which the pot is the same size.