

Supplementary Figure 2: Node degree distributions of the network of co-occurrence, and co-exclusion associations. Node degree indicates the number of links that connect node to others in the network. Power law degree distributions means that most nodes have only a few edges and are often connected few high-degree hub nodes.

