

Figure S2. ATR-FTIR spectra deconvolution used to calculate relative abundances of G and S units, as well as the S/G ratio. The sum of the squares of the residual error for each spectrum was always in the range of $\pm 5.0 \times 10^{-3}$, the determination coefficients were never less than 0.98.