

Supplementary Figure 2. Presence / absence matrix of non-core gene families.

Purple rows mean presence of a gene family, whereas gray squares reflect its absence; columns are strains and they are color-coded by clade. Only non-core gene families (excluding singletons) are depicted; paralogs are included in the same row.