

Figure S4: Relationship between proportion of tracheids in enlarging, wall-thickening and mature phases formed during individual dates of xylogenesis monitoring based on standardized and nonstandardized data. Red dashed line represents least-square regression.