

Supplementary Figure 1: Multi-scatter plots with Pearson correlation values of 0.5–1.0 suggest a good correlation between data obtained from the different experimental groups and biological replicates. Numbers on each panel represent correlation coefficient (R) values. Pearson correlations were calculated though the default 'multiscatter' graphical functions in Perseus.