

Figure S2 grand-average oxy-Hb response recorded between different sound levels in same sound source for 10 ROIs. The red and green line in solid and dashed on the panel represent oxy-Hb responses between high, low intensities in (A) 0° and (B) +90°. The shaded regions indicate the standard errors computed across all subjects for relative condition.