

Supplemental Figure 1: Phenotype distributions within treatments and experiments. Shoot and root phenotypes under well-watered (blue) and drought (brown) treatments within each experiment. Diamonds represent the median value of the trait. Letters indicate significance groups ($\alpha = 0.1$) determined by multiple comparisons tests using Tukey's method.