

Supplemental Figure 2: Correlation matrix in combined locations. Correlation matrices of root anatomical traits, shoot dry biomass, nodal root number and tiller number under well-watered treatment within experiments. Each box shows the correlation coefficient, r , between each trait. X's indicate that the correlation was not significant below $\alpha = 0.1$. See Table 1 for phenotype abbreviations.